

Project: Ploughing Up Our Past
 Respondent: Anne Murdoch (Smillie)
 Year of Birth: 1965
 Age:
 Connection to project: milk recorder
 Date of Interview: 2 July 2021
 Interviewer: Kay McMeekin
 Recording Agreement: Yes/ No
 Information & Content: Yes/ No
 Photographic Images: Yes 1 digital
 Length of Interview: 5 mins 54
 Location of Interview: Glen Afton
 Recording Equipment: Zoom H4n Pro

Time (from: mins/secs)	Summary transcript Description	Transcribed Extract (from- to: mins/secs)
00.00	Introduction
00:26	Born at Burnton farm, Dalmellington a beef and sheep farm. It's no longer there.
1:00	Favourite food mince and tatties.
1:40	Children had to feed lambs, dogs, bed some cows. Women looked after the men. Mum at home
2:15	Had a caravan at Stranraer for holidays.
2:25	Social life. As Burnton wasn't remote plenty of friends nearby.
2:40	Started as a milk recorder age 18. No computers. Put bottles in a crate. Get info from the farmer. Marked everything on a big yellow sheet. Samples sent away to Paisley. Results came back in a week.
3:25	Testing is important to improve the herd.

	Stayed over and got fed. Good and varied job. 15 years break. Computers had come in by her return.
5:25	Great job. Early mornings not so good.
5:48	Conclusion and thanks
 Supported by The National Lottery® through the Heritage Lottery Fund Le faic bhon Chrannchur Nàiseanta fio Mhaoin-Dualchais a' Chrannchuir		